British Society for Haematology
Listening • Learning • Leading

The BSH is supporting Plenary Speakers for haematology and transfusion conferences in low and middle income countries. The aim is to foster partnerships between the BSH and other haematology societies to share knowledge and expertise.

Application form

Application for BSH member (post-trainee) to be the BSH-supported Plenary Speaker at a low or middle income country (LMIC) haematology society meeting. Please note you must be a BSH member to apply.

Conference:

Your Details

Name:

Hospital/Institutional affiliation:

Position within institution:

Area(s) of haematological sub-specialty/ies:

Year you completed speciality clinical training in haematology:

Contact details (address, phone number and email address):

BSH membership number:

Please give details of any experience you have in an LMIC setting (max 250 words):

Please give details on your experience of speaking at regional, national and international meetings (max 250 words):

Please give details of any experience you have in guideline development or research (max 250 words):

Please briefly outline your reasons for applying for this initiative and your interest in longer-term collaborations with haematology societies in LMICs(max 250 words):

Please return completed application forms to globalhaem@b-s-h.org.uk