

BSH Nurse Education Day 6 March 2026 – online

This course, suitable for new band 5 or band 6 nurses, offers an introduction to key topics haematology. Taught through lectures, case-based discussion and group work, the day provides an opportunity to deepen your knowledge whilst connecting with peers.

BSH Members - £20

Non Members - £40

See more information here

09:00	Welcome and introduction
09:10	Overview of Common Haematological Malignancies – Simon Slade <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Leukaemia (AML, ALL, CLL, CML) • Lymphoma (Hodgkin and Non-Hodgkin) • Multiple Myeloma • Myelodysplastic syndromes and myeloproliferative neoplasms
10:00	Overview of Sickle Cell Disease <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Precipitators of crisis • What happens in a crisis • Management of sickle cell crisis
10:45	Morning break
11:15	Lab Overview and Blood Transfusion Introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Biochem basics, normal FBC ranges and what tubes for what tests • Order of draw • Blood Transfusion basics, what product does what etc.
12:00	Haematological Emergencies 1 – Sarah Casboul <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Neutropenic sepsis • Tumour lysis syndrome • Hyperviscosity syndrome
13:00	Lunch
13:45	Haematological Emergencies 2 - Bethany Maynard <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • APML • Coagulopathy • Spinal cord compression
14:30	Afternoon break
14:45	Teaching Hospital vs District General Hospital Management – Charlotte Bloodworth <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Differences in service provision and patient pathways • Referral processes and shared care • The role of MDTs in different settings • Nursing roles available & how they differ across trusts • Challenges and benefits of both environments
15:15	Interactive Case Studies & Group Reflection <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Anonymised patient cases with group work • Discussion of clinical reasoning, nursing interventions, communication strategies • Reflective practice and key takeaways from the day
16:45	Meeting close