CHAMPIONING CAREERS

British Society for Haematology

Building on the progress we've made, we will champion careers through targeted support, meaningful development opportunities and a stronger voice for the haematology workforce, helping people thrive at every stage of their career.

DISCOVERING BSH

We will attract and retain talent in haematology, building on the successful support BSH provide

Average educational benefit score ★★★★★ 4.82

- ✓ clinical relevance
- ✓ practical content
- ✓ expert speakers
- ✓ networking

Student

BUILD KNOWLEDGE & CONFIDENCE

Launching in 2027 - Advanced Nursing in Haematology

following the successful launch of our Haematology for Nurses course

Izieduwa Akhionbare, Student Communication Prize 2026

Trainee

New Grants inceasing:

- innovation
- development
- growth

EXPANDING PROFESSIONAL CONNECTIONS

> The educational content was useful and has helped improved my understanding and knowledge that I can apply to my everyday work

More mentoring opportunities at every stage over 80 registered users on our current Mentoring Platform

> Attending the ASM has had a significant impact on my professional development, strengthening both my clinical knowledge and my confidence to influence practice
> Claire Woodley, Top Abstract Award Winner

Early Career

DRIVING INNOVATION & RESEARCH

turning potential into impact strengthening career stage support for senior consultants

Akshay Karia, Crucible Prize 2026

Professional

CHAMPIONING THE PROFESSION

advocating for the future of the haematology workforce

We are developing advocacy toolkits to increase member engagement with policymakers,employers & local decision makers

Professor Beverley Hunt, Lifetime Achievment Award 2026

Leader