

Essentials in Haematology

Saturday 18 April, Liverpool

This one-day haematology education course offers the latest updates in haematology content and engaging, small case-based interprofessional learning sessions.

Designed for medical students, resident doctors, biomedical and clinical scientists, PAs, CNSs, ANPs and pharmacists, and any other interested allied health professionals,

09:30	Registration and tea and coffee
10:30	Welcome
10:45	Interpreting the full blood count– Dr Barton – 20m
11:05	Interpreting the coagulation screen – Angharad Everden – 20m
11:25	Small group teaching - DIC case - 1hr
12:25	Lunch – 45m
13:25	Haemato-oncology overview - Sapna and Rachel – 45m
14:10	Small group teaching – Burkitt lymphoma case – 1hr
15:10	Break – 20m
15:30	Haemolytic anaemia & sickle cell disease – Paula – 40m
16:10	Small group teaching – sickle cell disease case – 1hr
17:10	Haematological emergencies – Michelle – 30m
17:40	Meeting close