BSH Nurse Education Day

20, November, 2026

Venue: Online

Join us for our second Nurse Education Day this Autumn!
This day has been specifically designed for band 5 and 6 nurses working in haematology and will cover a variety of topics

Time	Topic
09.00-09.10	Welcome and Introduction
09.10-10.00	Overview of Common Haematological Malignancies – Simon Slade • Leukaemia (AML, ALL, CLL, CML) • Lymphoma (Hodgkin and Non-Hodgkin) • Multiple Myeloma • Myelodysplastic syndromes and myeloproliferative neoplasms
10.00-10.45	Overview of Sickle Cell Disease – Olushola Shoyemi • Precipitators of crisis • What happens in a crisis • Management of sickle cell crisis
10.45-11.05	Morning Break
11.05- 12.05	Lab Overview and Blood Transfusion Introduction – Emma Holt and Brittany Cheetham • Biochem basics, normal FBC ranges • Common lab tests and how we use them
12:05-13.00	Haematological Emergencies 1 – Sarah Durber • Neutropenic sepsis • Tumour lysis syndrome • Hyperviscosity syndrome
13.00-13.45	Lunch

13.45-14.30	Haematological Emergencies 2 – Bethany Maynard • Spinal Cord Compression
14.30-14.45	Afternoon Break
14:45-15.30	Blood Transfusion Overview – Kelly Nwankiti
15.30-17.00	Interactive Case Studies & Group Reflection
16:15	Meeting close