Haematology for Internal Medicine Trainees

Saturday 19 September, 2026
Manchester

This course supports IMT doctors in exploring and understanding Haematology clinical themes, core conditions, and the training pathway. Taught in person with a focus on group work and networking, this course is suitable for resident doctors considering a career in haematology, or anyone working in healthcare seeking to deepen their understanding of haematology.

09:00	Registration and tea and coffee
09:30	Welcome and outline of the day
09:45	Lymphoma and Myeloma – Dr Rachel Fisken
10:30	Lymphoma and Myeloma: break out groups
11:15	Break: Tea/coffee
11:30	Thrombosis and Haemostasis - Dr Sarah-Lindsay Holmes
12:15	Thrombosis and Haemostasis: break out groups
13:00	Lunch
13:45	Leukaemia and bone marrow failure – Dr Paula Glancy
14:30	Leukaemia and bone marrow failure: break out groups
15:15	Break: Tea/coffee
15:30	Red cell disorders and transfusion
16:15	Red cell disorders and transfusion: break out groups
17:00	How to get a Haematology training number – Dr Paula Glancy
17:30	Meeting close

Facilitators:

1. Rachel Fisken
2. Brittany Cheetham
3. Paula Glancy
4. Alice Ridgeway
5. Sarah-Lindsay Holmes

6. Yasmin Hammouda